

Hello to Shaw Islanders out there!

Alex and I just returned from Tucson. Don't ask if it was difficult to come back to NW weather. We're trying to be upbeat and forget how wonderful it was to wear ONLY ONE layer of clothing! But, I have to say, it is much easier to be in the holiday spirit here-- returning to friends and family is really what makes the holidays for us. (Well, and the cookies...)

The purpose of this email is to let you know all of the upcoming holiday events here on Shaw that may help you get into the spirit. Our website at www.shawislanders.org will also have events, dates and times posted.

Tuesday, December 13th

Lopez Sound an a cappella choir will perform Christmas music. They will begin promptly at 5PM. Donations are appreciated.

Wednesday, December 14th

The Shaw Island School Christmas Play

The play begins at 6:30PM and is written by Anita Orne, music teacher at the school. The kids really get into their roles and it is always a fun evening. The play is followed by carols and Santa.

Saturday, January 28th (time to be announced later)

Peter and the Wolf

This will be music and ballet performed by Sinfonia and Gigi Bernardi's ballet troupe.

Three events that aren't sponsored by Shaw Inc, but are usually fun anyway....

The Christmas Ship

The Island Rotary club comes with Santa and gifts for all the kids to the Shaw Ferry Landing.

Sunday, December 11 at noon

Carole and Brud's Christmas Party

Saturday, December 17 at 8PM

Shaw Library's Annual New Year's Party and Auction

December 31st at the Community Building

If you are planning to attend, sign up at the kiosk or call Jennifer Swanson.

Whether you are on Shaw or not this season, I hope that your holidays are filled with good times and good people. Sincerely, Willie (Shaw Inc. President)
